Grown-up guide

Learning objective

Compare details and identify a simple design conclusion.

Use this pack well

- Model the first example aloud, then let the learner try.
- Ask “How do you know?” more often than “Are you finished?”.
- Use real objects, talk, movement or observation when the activity suggests it.
- Stop or shorten the session if attention or enjoyment drops.
- Open-ended pages can have many successful answers.

Quality note

This resource was written originally for BrightPencil Kids. Curriculum sources informed scope and progression only; no third-party worksheet or story text is reproduced.

Learn the idea

1 Stories have characters, events and a sequence.

2 Good readers use details as evidence.

3 Talking and drawing after reading can deepen understanding.

Talk about it

Explain one idea in your own words. Give an example from real life, a drawing or an object if that helps.

Read story scene 1: Three friends packed lunch for a windy park visit.

Read story scene 2: Rosa chose a light paper bag, Ben used an open basket and Imi used a box with a lid.

Read story scene 3: A gust of wind lifted Rosa's napkin and rolled an empty wrapper from Ben's basket.

Read story scene 4: The friends collected everything and compared which container kept items secure.

Read story scene 5: They decided designs work better when they match the conditions and the user's needs.

Try it beyond the page

Real-world / hands-on connection

Retell the story using first, next, then and finally. Keep the important details.

Before you finish

What did you notice?

What evidence, object or example helped you?

What would you change if you tried again?

Create something

Your project

Draw a six-box comic or scene map showing the most important change in the story.

Use this space for planning, drawing, mapping, designing or notes.

CHALLENGE

Think deeper

1. Which container had a lid?

2. What problem did the wind cause?

3. What did the friends learn about design?

Quick review

1. In one sentence, explain the big idea of “The Three Lunchboxes”.

2. Draw or write one example that shows you understand.

3. Choose one activity from this pack and explain the strategy you used.

4. Write one question you still have.

Answer & discussion notes

Use these as guidance, not scripts. Open questions can have different successful responses when the reasoning is sensible and evidence-based.

1. Suggested response

Answers should use details stated or clearly supported by the story.

2. Suggested response

Accept equivalent wording when evidence is accurate.

3. Suggested response

Open responses should be plausible and connected to the text.

Review before publication
